

Play Party Rules

Expectations & Conduct

Plan to arrive on time, as the first ____ minutes will be set aside for introductions, as well as a rundown of the areas designated for play, aftercare, and socialising.

Play sober. No alcohol or recreational drugs allowed.

Don't touch anyone, their equipment, or belongings without their express consent.

Street clothes are required outside of the house. Inside the house, genitalia must be covered. Kinky attire is encouraged, but not required.

Be respectful of scenes. Keep socialisation to the designated space.

Please clean up after yourself.

Confidentiality

What happens at the party stays at the party.

All information about party activities, attendees, etc. is to be considered confidential.

No smart phones, cameras, or other recording devices are allowed.

Scenes

All scenes must be negotiated prior to the start of the party.

Play involving blood, scat, urine, or penetration of any kind must first be discussed with and approved by the host or host's designee.

Absolutely no negotiations are allowed mid-scene.

Safe words are required for all scenes. Please let the host or designee know what safe words you'll use prior to start of scene.

The host or designee has the right to stop a scene for any reason.

Additional Rules
